

Press Release

240920
24 September 2020

Reading Guild of Artists' Online Exhibition, 'Celebrating our Town – Discover Reading'

Reading Guild of Artists' (RGA) is thrilled to announce the opening of its first on-line exhibition, 90 years after the Guild was founded in 1930. Billed as the first instalment of 'Celebrating our Town – Discover Reading', artist and designer Martina Hildebrandt, has curated the most beautiful exhibition.

Visitors are invited to roam, at their leisure, from 'room to room' without having to worry about social distancing and enjoy an artist's view of the town, the countryside and the people of Reading. Art lovers can purchase works created by members of the RGA, in all styles and media. One visitor commented 'it is so beautifully presented, informative and elegantly hung'.

RGA President, Shiplake artist Clive Duncan (FRSS, RBA, SPS) said 'it is remarkable that even in this difficult and rather scary time, visual art and communication can triumph'

Further information on the Reading Guild of Artists, can be found by visiting <http://www.rga-artists.org.uk/>
or <https://www.facebook.com/ReadingGuildofArtists/>

Contacts:

Linda Saul, Vice Chair, Reading Guild of Artists
Tel: 07950 330632
Jane Somner, publicity assistant, Reading Guild of Artists
Tel: 07917 046542
Or email: publicity@rga-artists.org.uk

Photos attached:

Image: Poster for RGA Online Exhibition.

Note to Editors:

The Reading Guild of Artists was founded in 1930. It has a membership of nearly 200 artists and plays an active role in the development of artists in Reading and the surrounding areas.