

Press Release

060323
6 Mar 2023

Reading Guild of Artists – back at the RBH for 28th Charity Art Exhibition 6thMarch - 29thApril 2023

The Royal Berkshire Hospital plays host to the Reading Guild of Artists' RBH Corridor Exhibition No.28. This year RGA members' art works will be on show along the 2nd floor link corridor and also within the Maternity Block. Visitors and staff at the hospital will be able to enjoy this exhibition from Monday 6th March until Saturday 29th April. With the opportunity to own original art comes also the chance to support the NHS through the hospital charity. Members of the Guild are not only keen to share their artistic vision but are also happy to support the RBH by donating 25% of sales of their work to the 'Royal Berks Charity'.

A recent 'wild card' contestant on Sky Arts Landscape Artist of the Year (LAOTY) and RGA member Kerry Webb will be exhibiting her oil paintings. Sukhu Sidhu, Voluntary Services Manager at the RBH, looks forward to seeing this latest exhibition - she said that the RGA members always produce beautiful work of the highest standard. The RGA's Exhibition Secretary, Trish Roberts, knows that eye-catching art works displayed well cannot fail to lift the spirits of NHS staff, as well as visitors who find themselves at the Royal Berkshire Hospital.

-End-

Further information on the Reading Guild of Artists, can be found by visiting <http://www.rga-artists.org.uk/>

Contacts:

Jane Somner, Publicity Officer, Reading Guild of Artists
Tel: 07917 046542

Photo attached:

Archirondel Tower, Jersey by Kerry Webb (oil on board)
Kerry Webb with her oil painting Archirondel Tower, Jersey

Note to Editors:

The Reading Guild of Artists was founded in 1930. It has a membership of more than 200 artists and plays an active role in the development of artists in Reading and the surrounding areas.