Reading Guild of Artists – ‘Small Works’ Exhibition at the Riverside Museum

The RGA is pleased to have been invited to showcase members’ works of art at the Riverside Museum at Blake’s Lock in a new exhibition, entitled ‘Small Works’. On a smaller scale than many artists are used to working, RGA members have made art to fit within the historic and unusual setting of the Turbine House where Reading’s rivers meet. This is a wonderful opportunity for art lovers to visit the museum, to browse and maybe to buy some original art that would fit into their own spaces – something eye-catching, beautiful, bold, meaningful, and affordable.

The exhibition is open every day 10am – 6pm from Thursday 22 September until Sunday 2 October 2022, 10am – noon on the final day. Visitors to the Turbine House will be warmly received by members of the RGA to their exhibition of ‘Small Works’ down by the riverside.
